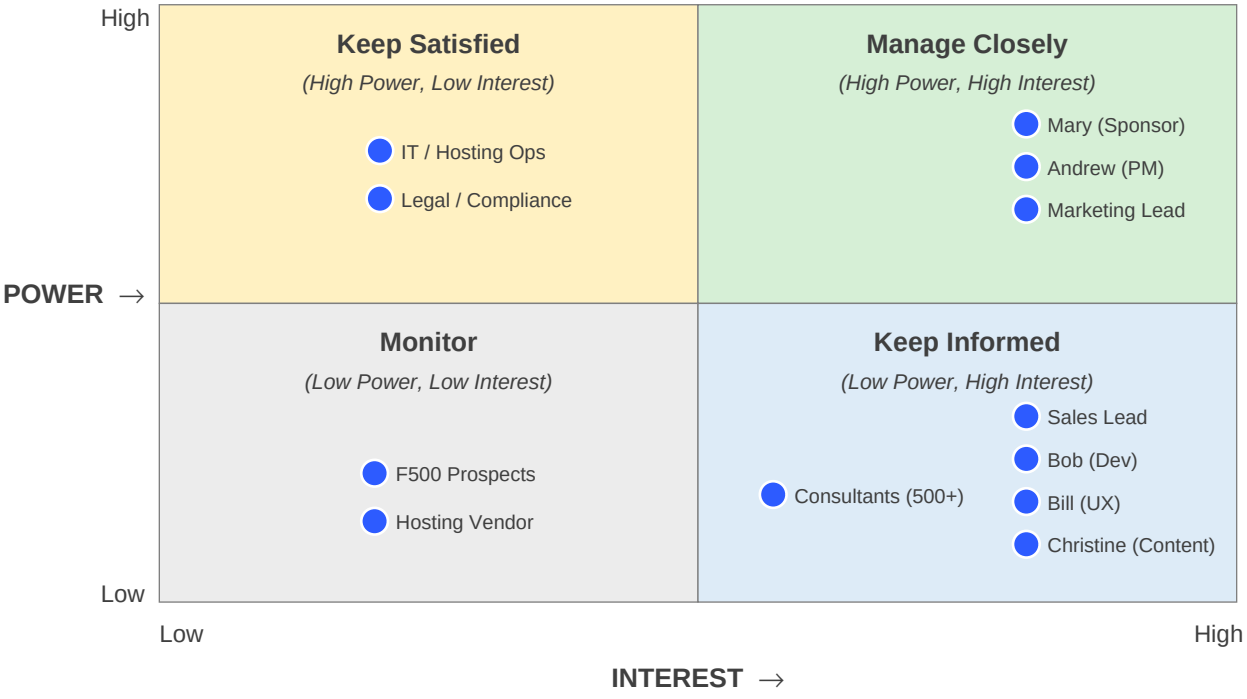
STAKEHOLDER MAPPING – POWER / INTEREST GRID

Project Title:	Mary's Consulting – New Company Website	Date Prepared:	May 6, 2026

Plot each stakeholder by how much power they have over the project (vertical) and how much interest they have in its outcome (horizontal). The quadrant determines the engagement strategy.



Manage Closely High Power, High Interest – actively engage, frequent communication.	Keep Satisfied High Power, Low Interest – meet their needs but don't overload with detail.	Keep Informed Low Power, High Interest – share progress and listen to feedback.	Monitor Low Power, Low Interest – minimal communication; watch for changes.

STAKEHOLDER MAPPING – SALIENCE MODEL

Project Title:	Mary's Consulting – New Company Website	Date Prepared:	May 6, 2026

The Salience Model classifies stakeholders by the combination of three attributes: Power (ability to impose their will), Urgency (need for immediate attention), and Legitimacy (their involvement is appropriate). Stakeholders with all three attributes are the highest priority.

Category	Attributes	How to Engage	Stakeholders
Definitive	Power + Urgency + Legitimacy	Highest priority – act on their needs first.	Mary (CEO/Sponsor); Marketing Lead
Dominant	Power + Legitimacy (no urgency)	Strong claim but not pressing – keep them satisfied.	IT / Hosting Operations; Legal / Compliance
Dependent	Urgency + Legitimacy (no power)	Need PM advocacy because they cannot act alone.	Bob, Bill, Christine; Sales Lead; Consultant Community
Dangerous	Power + Urgency (no legitimacy)	Coercive – manage carefully, may surface issues quickly.	(none identified for this project)
Dormant	Power only	Latent influence; communicate enough to stay aware.	(none identified)
Discretionary	Legitimacy only	Worth informing; little immediate effect on the project.	Fortune 500 Prospects; Hosting / CMS Vendor
Demanding	Urgency only	Noisy but low influence – acknowledge, but do not over-invest.	(none identified)
